It's Easter - "Come and See"

There is a story about a little boy named Kenneth who was learning to talk. Sometimes he got a few words confused. One Spring day flowers were bursting forth and the smells of the outdoors were beginning to be enticing. Kenneth was outside playing when he came running into the house talking about "fly butter". "Fly butter", he said several times pointing to the outdoors.

His mother couldn't seem to pick up his meaning. In exasperation he shouted, "Come and see!" So she followed him into the yard and proudly pointed to a flower. There on one of the flower petals was a small butterfly emerging from a chrysalis. "See", was all he said.

The butterfly is a symbol of the resurrection. Jesus rose from the tomb of death on that first Easter morning bringing hope, meaning, and new life to the world. From the cocoon of death the butterfly breaks forth as a beautiful creature representing life in all fullness.

Where do we see a butterfly emerging today? What situations invite, even compel us to say; "Come and see!".

As we take this Lenten journey together with Jesus, let us keep our eyes and ears open to the people and situations that God places in our path. We know where the journey will take us. We know of the heights and depths of Jesus ministry. We know that his journey leads to an excruciating death on the cross followed by a victorious rising to new life on Easter morning. We walk every step of the way with him and give praise and thanks for God's amazing grace and love.

What we know, others also need to know, even though they might not realize it. Easter is a time to be attuned to what God is doing. It is a time to say through words and actions: "Come and see!". "Come and see" how the Living Lord is worshipped at Fairview. Come, see, and experience a spirit of love, joy and peace as hymns are sung and the Word of God is proclaimed. Come and see the care and concern that is genuinely expressed for others.

God is at work all the time! Could it be that we are having a certain conversation with a certain someone for a divine reason? Maybe that divine nudge is trying to get us to pick up the phone or send an email to someone who would love to hear from us. Perhaps our well-laid plans got interrupted for a godly reason. We never know what unexpected adventure God may have in store for us. So in this holy season, let us keep our eyes peeled to see His plan and our ears open to hear His still, small voice. That is what new life in Christ is all about. It's Easter! Come and see!!

Executive Board Meeting:

Dear Fairview Friends,

This is just a little note to let you know what is happening for Carol and me.

I have volunteered to be the pastor at St. Philips Church which has fallen off so badly that it has few in attendance and can not afford a pastor. They are wonderful people and have struggled along for a long time with out a pastor and depending on supply ministers for Sunday services. I shall be preaching only twice a month, but be the full time pastor aiming to give that care to the people. I've already had a number of opportunities to meet that need. We have asked Scott to send our letters of transfer to the St. Philips Church, but continue to carry us a "Friends" of the congregation, because we value the few years we have been a part of Fairview and hope to be with you all for some occasions.

Many blessings,

Bill and Carol McElveen

Notes from Lewis

The liturgical year is the “calendar” of the church. The church year begins with the first Sunday of Advent and concludes with the Feast of Christ the King. On Wednesday, February 14th, we entered one of the most important seasons of the church year, the season of Lent. While most of us know all about this Liturgical season, I thought I would use this space to refresh our memories of why we do some of the things that we do during this season.

Lent is the forty-day-long liturgical season of fasting and prayer before Easter. The forty days represent the time Jesus spent in the desert, where he endured temptation by Satan. Different churches calculate the forty days differently. In Western Christianity Lent begins on Ash Wednesday and concludes on Holy Saturday. The six Sundays in Lent are not counted among the forty days because each Sunday represents a “mini-Easter”, a celebration of Jesus’ victory over sin and death.

The purpose of Lent is the preparation of the believer—through prayer, penitence, alms-giving and self-denial—for the annual commemoration during Holy Week of the Death and Resurrection of Jesus, which recalls the events linked to the Passion of Christ and culminates in Easter, the celebration of the Resurrection of Jesus Christ.

On February 14th, Ash Wednesday, we were invited to begin our journey toward Easter. One of my favorite authors is Ann Weems, a Presbyterian minister who died in 2016. In her book Kneeling in Jerusalem, she shares the following poem, entitled “Living a Life-giving Lent”:

Lent is a time to take time to let the power of our faith story take hold of us, a time to let the events get up and walk around in us, a time to intensify our living unto Christ, a time to hover over the thoughts of our hearts, a time to place our feet in the streets of Jerusalem or to walk along the sea and listen to his Word, a time to touch his robe and feel the healing surge through us, a time to ponder and a time to wonder....

Lent is a time to allow a fresh new taste of God! Perhaps we’re afraid to have time to think, for thoughts come unbidden. Perhaps we’re afraid to face our future knowing our past.

Give us courage, O God, to hear your Word and to read our living into it.

Give us the trust to know we’re forgiven and give us the faith to take up our lives and walk.

FAIRVIEW FRIENDS FELLOWSHIP

About three years ago we changed our name from SENIOR Friends Fellowship to FAIRVIEW Friends Fellowship. Although most of us fall into the “senior adult” category, we don’t necessarily like to admit it. We thought that the change of name might encourage more of our members to join us for our activities. As the name implies, there is no minimum age – everyone in the church is welcome to join us. Why not invite a friend and come to one of our activities? We always have a great time of fellowship and I can pretty much guarantee that you will have a great time! Here are our activities for the next two months:

Thursday, March 22nd, 10:00AM

We will travel to The Richard Childress Racing Museum in Welcome. We did this several years ago and the ladies enjoyed this as much, if not more, than the men. This time we will have our own Jerry Hailey as our tour guide! Admission to the museum is $8. Following our tour, we will eat lunch at a restaurant in the area.

Friday, April 27th, 5:30PM

We will travel to The Barn Dinner Theater in Greensboro to see the Church Basement Ladies in “A Mighty Fortress Is Our Basement.” We saw a show several years ago that featured the Church Basement Ladies and it was hysterical! Tickets for this are $49 per person which includes the buffet, tax, tip and the show. We have to have a final head count and the payment made three weeks prior to the show, so the deadline to sign up and pay will be Sunday, April 1st. Please sign up and pay with Jeanne Willard. Checks should be made out to Fairview Moravian Church.

"Jesus Followers" Youth Corner

The Jesus Followers met on January 24th and the kids learned about wanting to follow and obey God's Word. They heard the story of Adam and Eve and the Scripture from John 14:15 "If you love Me, you will obey what I command." so they could tie it all together. Then we played a game of Simon Says to help them implement listening and obeying in a fun atmosphere. On February 7th we met and had a pancake cook off, where they devoured an uncountable amount of pancakes! Linda Mathers came to work with the kids to practice the song they were to sing in worship for the following Sunday. On February 11th the Jesus Followers got up at our Worship service and sang their little hearts out for the Lord with the song "Old Church Choir"! They sang so full of the Spirit! I loved to hear them, and we sure do like to think that God loved to hear that Praise! On February 21st we met, and the kids packed some lunch bags for the Augsburg Lutheran Men's Shelter. These bag lunches are to go to the homeless staying at that shelter overnight, and be their lunch for the next day. They really got to learn firsthand how to do some work for Christ! Matthew 25:40! We played a game that helped them realize that Jesus was God, but He was also a man and had to grow up just like any other boy. They had a lot of questions about the whole Deity of God in the flesh, which was great that they were interested and wanted to understand! They learned the verse Luke 2:52 "...Jesus grew in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and men." And then we talked about ways that they could grow stronger in God's Word just as Jesus did with the Old Testament Scriptures. And a great big thank you to Bill and Ann Collins for going and picking up the groceries for the men's shelter, and to Steve and Nancy Morgan for providing the funding for the meals! That's just awesome!

We average about nine kids each session! It's growing! We do a devotional, prayer at any time (usually beginning and end), supper, Bible games, and sometimes sing a Praise song! And don't forget to welcome these visiting families at Worship when they come!! Thanks to all the parents for bringing their children out! It is truly a blessing to be able to work with these Children of God in this Ministry! In work for Christ, Matt & Brad
