Call to Worship

Today we gather around God's table from near and far

We are the people of God!

Though we differ in language, custom, and tradition

We are brothers and sisters in Christ!

For there is one Lord, one faith, and one baptism

We are one in God's Spirit!

We are one and together we remember our Lord Jesus

For we are the people of Redemption!

He gave himself up for us, so we could be reconciled to God.

Come, let us worship the God of our Salvation!

Prayers of the People/Pastoral Prayer

Liturgy - Preparatory to Holy Communion

(Standing)

ZEIGE MIR DEIN ANGESICHT

To avert from us God's wrath Jesus suffered in our stead;
by an ignominious death He a full atonement made;
and by His most precious blood brought us, sinners, nigh to God.

They who Jesus' mercy know are from wrath and envy freed;
love unto our neighbor shows that we are His flock indeed;
thus we may in all our ways show forth our Redeemer's praise.

Lord, hear my voice let Your ears be attentive to the voice of my supplication.

If You, Lord, should mark iniquities, O Lord, who could stand?

But there is forgiveness with You, that You may be feared.

I wait for the Lord, my soul does wait, and in His word do I hope.

Beloved, draw near to God, and He will draw near to you. Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and He will exalt you.

We will search our hearts and try our ways and turn again to the Lord.

Thus says the Lord: I am the Good Shepherd; the Good Shepherd lays down His life for the sheep. My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me, and I give to them eternal life.

UPSALA

Deeply moved and duly heeding My Good Shepherd's kindly leading,
Bowed with reverence before Him, I would praise Him and adore Him.
Jesus, heed me, lost and dying, unto You for shelter flying, all my sin and sorrow feeling, I now come for help and healing.

(Sitting or Kneeling)

SILENT PRAYER

Lord Jesus Christ, our only Mediator with God the Father, our mighty Savior and our glorious King, we humbly bow before You and confess our manifold transgressions.

We, Your disciples, have often in word and deed dishonored the holy Name we bear, and have turned aside from that path of holiness and loving service, in which You have called us to follow You. Pardon all our forgetfulness of Your great love and our coldness of heart, our frequent conformity to the ways of the world, and our failure to labor for the extension of Your kingdom.

Have mercy on us, according to Your loving-kindness; hide Your face from our sins and blot out all our iniquities.

Grant us, through the communion of Your Holy Supper, the assurance of our pardon, a greater power of sanctification, a closer union with You, and the joyous expectation of eternal life in the heavenly kingdom.

LACRYMAE

While in penitence we kneel, Your sweet presence let us feel, all Your wondrous love reveal.

From the bonds of sin release, cold and wavering faith increase,
Lamb of God, grant us Your peace.

Thus says the Lord: I, even I, am He who blots out your transgressions for My own sake, and will not remember your sins. Go, and sin no more.

(Standing)

HOLY LORD

Bread of life, Bread of Life, Christ, by Whom alone we live, bread that came to us from heaven, my poor soul can never thrive unless Thou appease it's craving;
Lord, I hunger only after Thee, feed Thou me, feed Thou me. Amen.

Hymn

A Mighty Fortress Is Our God

FORTRESS (199 A)

A mighty fortress is our God,
a bulwark never failing;
our helper he, amid the flood of mortal ills prevailing.
For still our ancient foe
does seek to work us woe;
his craft and power are great,
and armed with cruel hate,
on earth is not his equal.

Did we in our own strength confide, our striving would be losing,
were not the right Man on our side,
the Man of God's own choosing.
You ask who that may be?
Christ Jesus, it is he;
Lord Sabaoth his name,
from age to age the same;
and he must win the battle.

And though this world, with devils filled, should threaten to undo us,
we will not fear, for God has willed his truth to triumph through us.
The prince of darkness grim,
we tremble not for him;

his rage we can endure,
for lo! his doom is sure;
one little word shall fell him.

That Word above all earthly powers
no thanks to them abideth;
the Spirit and the gifts are ours through him who with us sideth.
Let goods and kindred go,
this mortal life also;
the body they may kill:
God's truth abideth still;
his kingdom is forever!

Service of Holy Communion – In Celebration of Unity and Renewal

(An ordained minister presides and consecrates the elements.)

Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, be with you all.

Amen. Thanks be to God.

FREUEN WIR UNS

Come, let us all with gladness raise a joyous song of thanks and praise to God who rules the heav'nly host,
God, Father, Son and Holy Ghost.

And in your love may we abide,
estranged from none by wrath and pride, among ourselves at unity and with all else in charity.

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

(The Lord's Prayer may be used as a conclusion to this prayer.)

Our Lord Jesus Christ, on the night he was betrayed, took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it, gave it to his disciples, and said: Take, eat, this is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.

(Sitting)

PENITENCE (141 E)

In the hour of trial, Jesus, plead for me;
lest by base denial I depart from thee;
when thou seest me waver, with a look recall,
nor for fear or favor suffer me to fall.

With forbidden pleasures would this vain world charm,
or its sordid treasures spread to work me harm,
bring to my remembrance sad Gethsemane,
or, in darker semblance, cross-crowned Calvary.

HAYN (82 D)

Jesus makes my heart rejoice,
I'm his sheep and know his voice;
he's a Shepherd, kind and gracious,
and his pastures are delicious;
constant love to me he shows,
yea, my very name he knows.

Trusting his mild staff always,
I go in and out in peace;
he will feed me with the treasure of his grace in richest measure;
when athirst to him I cry,
living water he'll supply.

Should not I for gladness leap,
led by Jesus as his sheep?
For when these blessed days are over to the arms of my dear Savior
I shall be conveyed to rest.
Amen, yea, my lot is blessed.

(At the conclusion of the hymn, the communicants stand.)

Our Lord Jesus Christ said: Take, eat, this is my body which is given for you.

(All partake together)

SILENT PRAYER

By your divine presence,
By the holy sacraments,
By all the merits of your life, sufferings, death, and resurrection,

Bless and comfort us, gracious Lord and God. Amen.

In the same way, after supper our Lord Jesus Christ took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Drink from this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sin. Do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me.

(Sitting)

LAUDA ANIMA (PRAISE MY SOUL)

Here we gather to remember love perfected, love denied, haunted by that life so tender, pard'ning, bleeding, crucified.
Grace invited, faith united, remnant hope of Calvary.

Here you offer us tomorrow, lives unseen and deeds undone, our fulfillment in the sorrow we embrace and make our own.
Grace invited, faith united, sent to share your mystery.

AURELIA (151 L)

The church's one foundation is Jesus Christ, her Lord;
she is his new creation by water and the word;
from heav'n he came and sought her to be his holy bride;
with his own blood he bought her, and for her life he died.

Elect from ev'ry nation, yet one o'er all the earth,
her charter of salvation: one Lord, one faith, one birth;
one holy name she blesses, partakes one holy food;
and to one hope she presses with ev'ry grace endued.

(At the conclusion of the hymn, the communicants stand)

Our Lord Jesus Christ said: Drink from this, all of you. Do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me.

(All partake together)

SILENT PRAYER

Christ, the Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world;

Grant to us your peace. Amen.

CASSEL (167 A)

Jesus, hail! Enthroned in glory, there forever to abide!
All the heav'nly hosts adore you, seated at your Father's side;
there for sinners you are pleading; there our places you prepare,
ever for us interceding, till in glory you appear.

Whenever you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death,

Until he comes.

(Standing)

By your reconciling love ev'ry stumbling block remove;
each to each unite, endear;
come, and spread your banner here.
May it to the world appear that we your disciples are by our loving mutually,
by our Christian unity.

The Lord bless you and keep you;
The Lord make his face shine upon you and be gracious unto you;
The Lord lift up his countenance upon you and give you peace;

In the name of Jesus. Amen. (sung)

The first Sunday in October is designated as World Communion Sunday, which celebrates our oneness in Christ with all our brothers and sisters around the world. Paul tells us that we are to “discern the body” when we partake of Holy Communion, mindful that we note our relationship to all our brothers and sisters in Christ in the celebration.
