In our Wednesday lunch and Bible Study, we have been learning a lot about Jesus as the Good Shepherd. We have gained new understanding in our study of John, Chapter 10 through the resource of a book entitled: A Shepherd Looks at the Good Shepherd by author Philip Keller. Keller writes from his experience as a shepherd and applies those insights to being "sheep" and disciples of Jesus today.

In a recent Bible Study, we focused on John, chapter 10, verse 3 where Jesus says: "The sheep hear his (the shepherd's) voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out." Keller helped us to see that the relationship between a shepherd and the sheep is strongly dependent on the use of the shepherd's voice.

Sheep quickly become accustomed to the owner's particular voice. They know that when the shepherd calls them, it is for a special purpose that has their best interests in mind. The shepherd even has names for each sheep that are recognized by the sheep when their name is called. If a stranger tries to call the sheep, the sheep will not respond because they will only go to their rightful shepherd owner, whose voice they recognize.

With this in mind, we can see a number of parallels in living the Christian life. Jesus, the Good Shepherd, calls us as His sheep, to come to Him. We know that when He calls us, He has our best interests in mind. We listen for his voice as he speaks - through the Scriptures, especially the words and actions of Jesus; through a sermon or presentation; through a time of quiet devotion; through a family member, friend, or neighbor; through the beauty and splendor of God's creation; through an inner voice speaking to us guided by the Holy Spirit.

Other voices, other influences, vie for our attention and devotion and can drown out the voice of the Good Shepherd. To hear His voice, it is so important to stay in close relationship with the Savior through prayer, reflection, Scripture study, and listening daily for His voice. God is continually calling us into a broader, richer experience of His will for our lives. His intentions for us are always good!!!

Listening along with you to the voice of the Good Shepherd,

Pastor Scott

Handicapped and Visitor Parking on Sunday Mornings

We have a number of handicapped parking spaces that are used every Sunday morning as we gather for worship. Even so, these spaces sometimes fill up quickly as do the spaces closest to the sanctuary. We are asking our members who are in good health to consider parking in spaces a little further from the building on Sundays. This would allow more open spaces for handicapped folks and visitors to use and it is another way to emphasize our welcoming presence. Thank you.

Notes from Lewis

Fairview Moravian Church has a very active Senior Adult Ministry known as Fairview Friends Fellowship. Unfortunately, many of you are missing out on a wonderful time of fellowship by not participating in this group! We meet on the fourth Thursday of each month (with a few exceptions). You will notice in the information below that the next three months are exceptions. We try to plan a wide variety of programs, including covered dish meals and programs here at the church and trips to some very interesting places. We would love to have even more people involved in this wonderful ministry of the church. I would like to highlight our activities for the remainder of 2018.

Thursday, October 18th, 9:30AM – Fall Foliage Mystery Trip

We will board the bus and travel to the mountains to enjoy the beautiful colors of Autumn! We will enjoy lunch at one of everyone's favorite mountain restaurants and then enjoy some fun things nearby before returning to the church. Please call Jeanne Willard (336-768-5645) or see her here at church no later than Sunday, October 14th to reserve your spot on the bus.

Tuesday, November 6th, 9:30AM – A Wohlfahrt Haus Christmas

We will travel to the Wohlfahrt Haus Dinner Theater in Wytheville, VA for their 2018 Christmas show. We will celebrate the Christmas season with a delicious holiday feast! Then we will sit back, relax, and enjoy wonderful music, dazzling dance numbers, and beautiful costumes! To complete the evening, we will be inspired by the greatest gift of all, the beautiful story of the nativity! Cost of the meal and show is $42 per person, provided that we have a group of 20. We must have our final payment and head count in two weeks ahead of time, so please call Jeanne Willard (336-768-5645) or see her here at church no later than Sunday, October 21st to reserve your spot on the bus and pay your $42.

Thursday, December 6th, 11:30AM

We will meet here at the church and go to a local restaurant for lunch. We will then return to the church to enjoy delicious holiday desserts which you will provide! Each person should bring a $5 wrapped gift for our gift exchange. Please call Jeanne Willard (336-768-5645) or see her here at church no later than Sunday, December 2nd so that we know how many to make lunch reservations for.

Help Us Fight Hunger in Forsyth County and Surrounding Areas

CROP Hunger Walk – You can help make a difference in local AND global hunger by walking in our CROP Hunger Walk this year. With only a few weeks to go, our congregation has a few Walkers participating and we want MORE!. Won't you join them? To sign up to be a Walker, see

Victoria Lasley or Heather Hubbard to get a Donation Envelope. If you can't walk, please sponsor a Walker.

Mark your calendars for the Joyful Noise offering being collected on October 21st for the Crop Hunger Walk!

Summary of the Board Meetings

The Board of Trustees Meeting

-Sept. 10th, 2018-

The following are some of the more notable highlights of the most recent Trustees meeting: 1) The landscaping and the construction of a stage in our activity building turned out well and made the Police Appreciation Day program much better. The cost overrun, however, has increased by a thousand dollars, making our debt due $5250, which we will request contributions to cover.

2) Church Secretary/Treasurer, Patricia Rau, along with Gay Nell Hutchens, and Melissa Thompson have been designated Attorneys in Fact for the church for the sole purpose of transferring designated stock etc. to the church.

3) Our Stewardship Campaign is on track and will culminate with the Stewardship Sunday and a Luncheon on October 28th

Respectfully submitted,
Jody Brendle
Chairman, Board of Trustees

The Joint Board Meeting

The Joint Boards of Fairview met September 10. Former Fairview member Rev. Bill McElveen had reported to Pastor Scott that the congregation of St. Philips Moravian Church may ask Fairview for room for them to meet in worship on Sunday mornings. Joint Board members unanimously approved use of the Blum Chapel for that purpose. There was lengthy discussion of handicap and visitor parking.

The Board of Elders

The Board of Elders also met September 10 and received reports from numerous church committees. Plans are in place for Trunk or Treat on October 27. There was lengthy discussion of visitation of shut-ins and those not attending worship. Members may be asked to participate in visitation teams.

We are collecting eye glasses for the Lions Club. The collection box is in the Lovefeast Kitchen. Throughout the year, Lions, and other volunteers collect used eyeglasses and deliver them to regional Lions Eyeglass Recycling Centers (LERCs). LERC volunteers clean, sort by prescription strength and package the glasses. Recycled glasses are distributed to people in need in low and middle income communities where they will have the greatest impact. If you have any questions about the Lions Club or the eye glass collection, please contact Jerry Byerly. Thank you!

Love feast

Sunday, October 14th during our 10:00a.m. worship service we will have our Missionary Chapter Lovefeast with a band prelude at 9:30a.m. Our guest speaker will be the Rt. Rev. Sam Gray. Rev. Gray will be sharing with us about the new Moravian work going on in Northern Peru. Plan to join us!

Betty and Danny Ferguson

I have some bad news. Danny Ferguson is leaving us. Even worse news, Betty is going with him. They're moving to Charleston, S.C. to be near their family. I understand, sort of. I'm going to miss them both, almost as much as they'll miss Fairview and all their friends here. Danny has been associated with Fairview, off and on, ever since he was three years old and voted Fairview's prettiest baby. It's true.

Betty has been at Fairview, with Danny, for over fifteen years, in several different capacities: church member, choir member, worker behind the scenes, technically, and generally helping out with anything that's needed. It's been hard for Danny to say no to anything at Fairview, since he lives a "stone's throw" from the church. He can't use, "My car's in the shop" or, "There's snow in my driveway." Nope... not when he's within walking distance, but, he wouldn't even if he could. He's always available. Fairview is going to miss them both.

Danny is from Winston-Salem and I found out he had a sister twenty-three years older than him with no other siblings in-between. He won the Safety Patrol Award in grade school and then graduated from RJ Reynolds High School. He went to East Carolina University and took advantage of the college-life opportunities there. After graduation in 1969, he chose to attend law school at Memphis State University, where he graduated 4th in his class, earning his Juris Doctor Degree. He lived in Memphis for over ten years before coming back home. While practicing law in Memphis, he was honing his skills in the daily duties that all young lawyers go through doing a lot of night work at times. One night, Elvis Presley's cousin had been locked up for something and Elvis came to bail him out—Elvis himself! And guess what? Danny was off that night.

Betty is from Hampton, Virginia where she grew up in a home with two sisters, 14 and 15 years older than her. Her mother lived to be 99 years and 11 months old. Can you believe that? She went to Old Dominion University and got her Master's Degree from Virginia Commonwealth University. She's been in education for 40 years, 23 of them teaching music. She has that gift—no other way to explain it. She was born with music in her and has influenced students throughout her life. One in particular, who made it big with famous bands, still writes her and sends her music and videos he has produced. She had that kind of influence on him. They both love to travel, especially to Italy and the beach, and Betty can speak enough Italian to get them through most toll lines on the Italian freeways!

They met in 1990 on a blind date in Newport News, Virginia and married about two years later. Danny brought his bride to Winston-Salem and now they're leaving us, which means between them, we will be losing forty-seven years of practicing law, over 40 years of teaching, church committees, recitals, author of two books (VOW OF VENGEANCE and THE TITANIC ATONEMENT), and friends to us all at Fairview. That's a big hole to fill.

I was visiting with them recently and they were telling me some stories from their lives . . . very interesting and entertaining. They were in London once and met a Baroness who set up a lunch for them at Parliament. Then they saw the Queen and Nelson Mandela ride by in a parade—with pictures to prove it. They bought a second home one time in the coastal city of Bath, N.C. and kept it for over five years. We've all dreamed of doing something like that. They did it.

Their travels have taken them to France as well, where they really enjoyed the Normandy region partly because of Danny's interest in history and WWII. Some of that may have stemmed from Danny's service in the United States Marine Reserves, which he was a member of from 1964 until 1970—active duty in 1964 and 1965. I guess his experience with firearms helped him at the Lewisville American Legion Post, where he and his good friend, Bill Wright, served on the Rifle Team.

Danny has tried hundreds upon hundreds of criminal cases over the years, from misdemeanors to capital felonies. He has tried cases in numerous trial courts in North Carolina and Tennessee as well as in the NC Court of Appeals. He has filed numerous pleadings for Certiorari in the US Supreme Court. Hearing him describe the feeling he had in these capital cases, where his defense literally meant the difference between life and death, was spell-binding. I can't imagine having that type of responsibility thrust upon me.

His work was, and is still, very important to Danny—as well it should be. It will always be a huge part of his life. However, when I asked him what was most important to him (besides the obvious answer we'd all give—family), he told me this: "I feel so fortunate and blessed that my parents, Hardie Tom and Pearl Brown Ferguson, raised their children in the church." He then told me that he felt sorry for those out there that didn't have that, and don't have the love of the Lord in their lives. Betty told me how Fairview reminds her of the church where she grew up. What a nice memory to have.

I tried to get something else out of Danny, but being the shy, reserved type that he is, he didn't want to say too much about himself. He only said that he wished everyone could be as happy and content as he is, and that everyone could believe, as he does, that God will always be with him.

Betty is very excited to start the new adventure in their lives, close to their son and three grandchildren. She's hoping to help influence their lives musically, as only a grandmother and teacher could. She's also hoping that some songs she's been working on can get copyrighted. I'd love to hear them. But most of all, she hopes her child and grandchildren will have a happy, fortunate, and blessed life. Don't we all?

I have a LONG list of Danny's professional achievements—more than will fit in this short, little narrative. But, trust me, it is full of impressive awards and honors. I'm proud to know them both, and sad that we'll be losing them to their new life in South Carolina. But trust me, Danny, anytime you want to come back and visit and resume your duties as Diener, Trustee Representative, Safety Committee member, van driver, choir member, or any other things you've done over the years—just let us know. We'd love to welcome back Betty and Fairview's "Prettiest Baby" one more time!

Fall Stewardship Program - "Graced By the Fruits of Our Labor"

Our stewardship emphasis for this year begins on Monday, October 8th and continues for three weeks culminating in our Commitment Sunday on October 28th. The overall theme for this year is "Graced By the Fruits of Our Labor." A timetable for these three important weeks is as follows:

October 8 - Stewardship Program Begins

October 10 - 12:00 noon - Wednesday Bible Study includes the first weekly theme - "The Grace of Giving God Our Best."

October 14 - 10:00 Worship. First speaker talks on weekly theme. We will have our Mission Lovefeast with the Rt. Rev. Sam Gray bringing the message about new Moravian Mission efforts in Peru.

October 17 - 12:00 noon - Wednesday Bible Study includes the second weekly theme - "Using Our Spiritual Gifts".

October 21 - 10:00 Worship. Second speaker talks on weekly theme. A stewardship message is given. The stair-step chart is explained. Reservation cards are filled out for the Commitment Sunday Service and Catered Luncheon the following Sunday. (October 28th)

October 24 - 12:00 noon - Wednesday Bible Study includes the third weekly theme - "Growing a Grateful and Generous Heart".

October 28 - 10:00 Worship - COMMITMENT SUNDAY- Third speaker talks on weekly theme. A stewardship message is given. Financial commitments to the Lord and Fairview Church are received at the end of the service. A luncheon catered by Cagney's Restaurant follows in the Fellowship Hall.

(There is no Sunday School)

The Joint Boards and Stewardship Committee invite each member of the congregation to prayerfully consider how we can support this very important emphasis of our congregation by making a commitment to the many ministries of the church as we move into 2019 with God guiding us!!

Special Memorial Service

Scheduled for Sunday, November 4th

During the 10:00a.m. service, we will remember in a special way all members of Fairview who have entered the more immediate presence of the Savior since last November. Names will be spoken and candles will be lit as an act of remembrance of those who had been a part of our fellowship in Christ and are now residing in their heavenly home. We hope all members will make a special effort to be present for this meaningful service of remembrance.

The Christian Education Committee is making plans for this year's Trunk or Treat, which will be on Saturday, October 27th. We want to fill the Parking Lot with trunks full of treats. To achieve this goal, we are asking for your help. Please prayerfully consider bringing your decorated "trunk" to this event. The decorations do not have to be elaborate. We will even help you decorate your trunk if you let us know ahead of time! If you need candy for your trunk, we will even help with that as well. Please plan to join us! The event is from 4:00p.m. to 6:00p.m. We will be having a hotdog supper that will be provided. We are also asking our very generous congregation to donate lots of wrapped candy for this event. Candy donations can be placed in the designated box in the Parlor. As always thank you Fairview Family!
